

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Jas. Markey, 300 Beethoven st., recently arrested as gunman, stabbed five times in fight. Will die. John Duffy held. Identified as assailant.

Four raids in disorderly houses and hotels brought arrests of 43.

Pilose still holding C. M. Houston in connection with Cohan's Grand Opera House robbery.

Abe Ratner, wanted in connection with arson trust cases, brought back from Saskatchewan, Can.

Bankers to hold conference here. To discuss Federal Reserve banks.

Wm. Anderson, 1538 W. 66th pl., dropped dead. Heart disease blamed.

Tony Gusbarto, 1012 Aberdeen st., suicide. Gun.

Judge confiscated two chickens found on Dan Murphy, 4711 Augusta st. Five women prisoners had feast at Desplaines st. station Sunday.

Robber locked Martin Suttler, 3258 N. Ashland av., in ice box of saloon. Took $15.

Stefana Sbovash, 2, 940 Sedgwick st., reported missing. Found unharmed by father.

Five arrested in Evanston for speeding. In court this morning.

Gustave Byurman, 815 Townsend st., found door locked. Crawled along board from porch to window. Fell four floors. Dead.

Two hundred children marched at funeral of Albert Belfuss, formerly alderman of 15th Ward, yesterday.

Five hundred recruited for service in Ireland for Home Rule cause. $7,000 donated for purchase of arms.

Launch of Robert Griffith hit piling in North Canal. Wife and Mrs. Clara Greuner drowned.

Three girls pulled from water and revived by life guards at Wilson beach Sunday.

H. H. Weeks, 2516 Clara pl., smashed auto on curbstone. Avoided collision with another machine.

Chicago vacationists found Fox Lake dry. No liquor for first time in history of village.

Wilbert Simpson, 13, 814 W. 61st pl., found old revolver. Didn't know it was loaded. Shot and killed companion, Jas. Burke, 13, 818 W. 50th pl.

George Ficht crushed by train. Hospital. Lungs stopped work at 12 o'clock Saturday night. Heart beat two hours and forty minutes longer.

Philip Fassio, Chicago Heights saloonkeeper, shot and killed behind bar. Murderer escaped. Blame "black hand."

Two thugs held up V. M. Alexander, 935 Leland av., pres. of C. & A. R. R., near home. Got $120 cash and $575 in jewelry.

Wm. Moore, 6220 University av., janitor, arrested. Confessed padded brick robbery. Suspected of many others.

James Picek, watchman in W. O. King lumber yards at 26th and Loomis, turned in alarm when fire started in timber. Baby left in house. Burned to death.

Chas. Mironde, 161 S. State st., held up in his saloon by two men. Got $10.

Two unknown thugs walked up to Sam Scaletta, 1119 Townsend st., and emptied guns at him. Dead. Wife shot twice. Blame Mafia.

Watch valued at $285 stolen from room of Miss L. Robertson, 639 Library st., Evanston.

Thos. McElligott, 5923 Indiana av., dove from pier at Chicago Beach. Struck rock. Back broken. Dead.

Victor Prins, 27, 5332 Prairie av., suicide. Gas. Motive a mystery.

"Dorothy," launch of Albert Bitze, "went dead" off South Chicago. Towed in by lifesavers.

Gold bracelet stolen from house of A. G. Slife, 732 Emerson av., Evanston. Police notified.

—o—o—o—
Cover jelly when cold with thin coating of paraffine, taking great care it reaches the glass on all sides. Turn glass carefully and force paraffine up, all round the glass above the jelly.